

God of Someday Soon

Ross King, Lyn Rowell, Allison Speer

Life on Easy Street ain't so easy
The rent is due and the money's gone
Three little faces, need a feedin'
Takes all she'd got to carry on

She used to dream 'bout seein' Paris
Limousines and fancy gowns
Now it's bus stops and scratch off tickets
But her dreams don't leave the ground

And the days go by so fast, but they seem to take so long
Troubles come and troubles last when they should have come and gone
She's just waitin', prayin' for something new, calling on the God of someday soon

One street over on Hopeless Circle
There's a man of staying clean
He keeps a picture of his three babies
And he still wears his wedding ring

And the days go by so fast, but they seem to take so long
Troubles come and troubles last when they should have come and gone
He's just waitin', prayin' for something new, calling on the God of someday soon

Hope will keep you moving when there's just no undoing what's been done

And the days go by so fast, but they seem to take so long
Troubles come and troubles last when they should have come and gone
We're all waitin', prayin' for something new, calling on the God of someday soon
Calling on the God of someday soon
