

Loud Enough To Wake The Dead

Niles Borop/Bruce Carroll

Verse 1

Oh saints aren't you excited, the hour is drawing nigh
When we'll all see Jesus and be caught up in the sky
We see the signs around us, it could be today
Yes the Bridegroom's comin' and He'll take us all away

Chorus

Gabriel's gonna blow that trumpet
Loud enough to wake the dead
Horn will cry no pow'r will stop it
Loud enough to wake the dead
Saints will rise up when they hear it
Sound will free both flesh and spirit
Loud enough to wake the dead
Loud enough to wake the dead

Verse

Brothers start rejoicing, sisters clap your hands
Just off the horizon awaits the Promised Land
So start the celebrating no more need for tears
Let's be lookin' for Him when He reappears

Repeat chorus twice
