

What Others Are Saying About Allison Speer

“Allison is the best female vocalist in gospel music, period! We have her in concert every year, and have moved her to Sunday morning now, which is unusual in our church. The spirit of her singing and spoken word, gives a powerful worship service.”

Gavin Raath, Pastor, Flint Central Church of the Nazarene

“There is not another female singer that thrills and blesses me as much as Allison. Not only is she an incredible vocal talent, but what she says in between her songs is equally powerful. She’s a blessing for all ages. I recommend her without any reservation.”

Mike Speck, Mike Speck Ministries

“The best thing about Allison isn’t her tremendous voice, although I’ve heard few with her vocal strength and ability. It’s not her talent for delivering the message from stage. Not even her comfortable, almost down-home flavor that makes her feel like a friend to everyone. It’s that she is purely driven by the Lord to make the best use of the gift He has given. She has a serious desire to see His kingdom increase.”

Wayne Watson, Christian recording artist

“Allison Speer communicates her love and intimacy with Christ with a warmth that is uniquely Allison. Her voice and ministry are anointed by God and will bless your church immeasurably.”

Jeff Mullen, Lead Pastor, Point of Grace Ministries, Des Moines, IA

“Blend together spiritual maturity, a tremendous vocal range, a good sense of humor, and a bundle of energy and you’ve got Allison Durham. If her physical size matched her voice and spiritual qualities, she’d be ten feet tall! We’ve had her at our church twice and look forward to her return. She’s one of God’s choice Christian artists and a modern-day gift to the Church.”

Pastor Jim Gerlt, Indiana Avenue Baptist Church, Lubbock, TX

“Allison Durham Speer is one of the finest and nicest artists in Christian music today. A beautiful person, inside and out, she ministers easily both to the old and young in her audiences. In addition to her superb talent, Allison has a genuine passion for bringing the message of Christ to a hurting world. Drawing from her own experiences, she relates the power of God’s love to heal broken hearts and bring joy to everyday living. Allison has presented two concerts at our church, and we can hardly wait for her to return!"

Ann Pence, Music Pastor, South Church of the Nazarene, Lansing, MI

"Wow! Allison Durham Speer just gets better and better! She has been our guest twice now and is scheduled to be with us again this coming fall. God has truly blessed Allison with a tremendous voice and a beautiful spirit. Our people love her and I can guarantee that yours will too!"

Danny Bunnelle, Minister of Worship, Christian Fellowship, Ashburn, VA

"I have had the sincere privilege of traveling with Allison in Russia and Bosnia and seeing her ministry of music alive and in person with those we have worked with. In addition to her obvious strong gift of music, she ministers directly to people's spirits and is a marvelous communicator across cultural barriers. Music is an international language, and Allison is as fluent as anyone I have seen.

Ralph Plumb, President, International Aid, Spring Lake, MI

"Allison is one of my favorite people. Her sweet sincerity shines through every time she sings."

Gloria Gaither

"The Sunday night concert with Allison Speer was a tremendous worship experience. Allison really connected with us, and we found her so easy to love. After the concert, she expressed to me that she loved the unusually warm spirit of our church. For more than twenty years I have enjoyed Allison's great voice and the way she puts her whole heart into every song. My greatest thrill Sunday night was that from the very first song our youth were exuberant as they clapped and gave her a standing ovation. That excitement carried over to just about everyone because it was evident that she is so anointed of the Lord as she sings.

"I believe we all appreciated that at key points in the concert Allison reached out to the youth and spoke directly to them. After the concert everyone saw what I had already seen in Allison. She is extremely friendly and just plain real. As the people packed around her she never got in a hurry, but stayed until the last person left. During that time, groups of our youth enjoyed visiting with her. Don't try to tell me youth don't like the kind of music we had last night. Thank you Lord for being so good to us!"

Rev. Cliff Mayton, Memorial Baptist Church, Spring, TX
